

18th Annual African Heritage Dinner Program

Sponsored by The African Fellowship Ministry, Mount Zion Baptist Church, Seattle, Washington

THEME: Community Engagement: Sharing Knowledge, Wisdom and Strategies for Overcoming Chaos in Uncertain Times

When: Sunday, July 29, 2018 – Unity Worship Service – 10:00 AM

Dinner and Panel Discussions - 1:00 PM – 4:30 PM

Where: Mount Zion Baptist Church ~ 1634 Rev. Dr. S. McKinney Avenue (19th Ave.) ~ Seattle, Washington 98122

Sanctuary/Jessie L. Shields Fellowship Hall

Program Director - Lawrence A. Adeyemi, PhD, African Fellowship Chair

Program MC - Deacon Michael Twiggs

- ◆ Event will feature Panel Discussions and Interactive Community Participation

Panel Facilitator: Dr. Solomon M. Uwadiale, Managing Consultant, Author/Executive Coach & Facilitator

Lead Panelists: Mr. Nicholas Nuamah, Attorney (on immigration and US New Policy) – Nicholas Nuamah Law Firm, Seattle ,

Honorable Larry Gossett, King County Councilman – (on politics and policies affecting diverse Black and Minority communities),

Ms. Olutoyin (Toyin) Adeyemi, (Columbia University) Professor of English and Technical Writing, Bellevue College (Observations and inter-generation Perspectives) and

Rev. James O. Stallings, Interim Pastor, Mount Zion Baptist Church (The role of the church as a beacon of Hope and Spiritual Guidance)

- ◆ African Gourmet Cuisine and International bites will be served
- ◆ African Diaspora Fashion Show
- ◆ On a lighter note: Trivial and Raffle Draws/Wins

$25 per person, $200 per table for eight people and generous donations are welcome. A portion of the proceeds will go towards youth scholarships, among others. Dinner tickets are available for purchase following Sunday service at Mount Zion Baptist Church and may be purchased at the door on day of the event. Groups, organizations and individuals are all welcome!

For more information, contact Co-Director, Florence Adeyemi, at afnconnect@aol.com or at 206-235-0782.

We recommend you arrive in your African Attire.